

RANGOLI COMPETITION (2016-17)

Rangoli making is a tradition passed on from generation to generation. A Rangoli competition was organized in Banasthali Public School, Vikaspuri on 22nd October with the objective is to disseminate the message to celebrate pollution free Diwali. The Maj Gen. M.C.Gupta Memorial hall was transformed into a large canvas reflecting colourful creations and detailed designs.

All the rangolis were traditional and colourful. Diya's were also used to create a spiritual environment.

The judges were overwhelmed to see the creation of young students of class VI to XII.

Children thoroughly enjoyed doing Rangolis and felt proud at their own creations. This competition has truly announced the beginning of the Diwali festivities!!!
